Family Research at the DHGRC

Well we had our first Family Research Day on the 9th February, Kevin Hammond came along, so we had a lovely chat and he showed us his research, really nicely presented information. Then we did some researching on the internet. An enjoyable afternoon.

As you can see by our Open Days we have some fun stuff coming up, the Adelaide Northern Districts Family History Group will be with us on the 9th March. This group are great to work with they get you inspired and are wonderful assistance with your research.

On the 13th April Michelle Scragg from Heritage Scrapbooking was suppose to be coming but unfortunately she had to postpone for a later date. So Peter Applebee will be doing a talk on Researching Pioneer Families "Pre 1840". See flyer to the left for further information.

Please come along to the 2nd Sunday of the Month and research your family tree.

Remembering our fallen in 2014

We have a date for our Tree Planting, the 9th of November, 2014. we are all very excited about this, we have been given permission from the Army to use the Rising Sun Badge so the 22 plaques will be very special. What we are in need of photos of our soldiers from World War One, whether they fell or returned home to their loved ones, please share them with us. The DHG will put a list up on our website and at the DHGRC of the names of the soldiers we have, there are few we are not sure of, so have a look and see if you can assist us. There is one in particular the only lady, Dorothy Emily BAKER Staff Nurse any information or photos of Dorothy would be gratefully accepted.
