Old Postcards Donated

Post Cards were donated by Grace Profilio of Melbourne who purchased them randomly from a box in an antique dealers in 1999. Grace was surprised to find they were addressed to the same person and decided to return them and learn more about Myrtle Magor. Cards read:

Card 1 Killarney Colleen Bawn Rock

Miss M Magor Dublin Post Office Dublin South Australia

Dear Myrtle, Hope you are all well. I have not been lately. Excuse me not writing before as I have been busy. Hope you will enjoy yourself Easter Time. Remember me to all up your way. With love from Myrtle,

Write soon thanks for the postcard

Card 2 Killarney Turnpike Rock Gap of Dunloe

Miss M Magor Dublin South Australia

Dear Myrtle, arrived safe and sound. I am going to stay at ? All well here. Wishing you a Merry Xmas and Happy New Year Sandy

Anyone with more information that they could contribute to this delightful story please let the DHG know.

Beautiful Christmas Cards Created

November 23rd saw our last workshop for the year, Marie, Sue and Andrea had a fun and creative Sunday Afternoon making the delightful Christmas Cards that Lisa Mansell had created. The girls learnt some new techniques and cannot wait until 2015 when Lisa comes back to run some more Workshops. Watch out for more information in 2015.

Our Additional Seven

These are the names of the Fallen WW1 Soldiers we will honour on May 24th.

William Henry Barnes

Ernest William Beer

Albert Leslie W Chapman

Edwin Claude Chapman

Harry Albert E Price

Carlisle Clinton Tainsh

Alfred Leslie Wasley

Open Day Changes

The DHGRC are modifying our Open Days in 2015. We will be open on the second Sunday of each month if you would like to do some research or just pop in for a look around. We will also be holding Workshops, Talks, Presentations and Events at other times during the month so watch out in the Dublin Dispatch, on the website and Facebook for further information about what are happening at the DHGRC .
