July & August: Card Workshops

Lisa Mansell has returned to do a series of Card Making Workshops. Her first for the year was the beautiful box card in July, a very pretty card that lays flat for sending then opens into a box. Then in August she was testing our skills with a Trio of Masculine Cards just in time for Father's Day. Photo above: L - R Marie Connelly, Debbie Howie, Sue Readings, Sue Adams, Lisa Mansell, Heather Haebich and Vanessa Hall. Spring will bloom in September when three beautiful Potted Pretties cards are scheduled, please book if you are interested in attending.

June: The Habners and Primes of Dublin and Eyre Peninsula Talk

John Woodside author of "In Our Forbears Footsteps" written about the Habner family came and shared what he learned about the family and in particular their life in Dublin whilst researching the book. After an interesting presentation and questions, all socialised over Afternoon Tea. One cousin, Ruth Andrew had driven from Moonta SA to catch up with John personally as they had only been corresponding by emails up to that point; L-R Ken Habner, Rosemary Habner, John Woodside with his book and Ruth Andrews. Ken and Rosemary are brother and sister to my wife Barbara Habner-Woodside. Ken, Rosemary and Ruth are great grandchildren of Mathis and Maria Habner buried in Dublin Cemetery.

August: Online Research Workshop

National Family History Month

Great afternoon! Dublin History Group partnered with Adelaide Northern Districts Family History Group. Margaret, Peter and Ivor gave us some great tips on how to research our genealogy online, thank you to them and our attendees for making it an informative session.
