With the key boundary changes following the 2020 redistribution, the Adelaide Plains Council area moved from Narungga to Frome which came into effect in the March State Election

The Dublin History Group congratulate Penny Pratt MP on winning the seat of Frome in the election and look forward to working with her and her team in the future .

We also thank and congratulate Fraser Ellis

MP for retaining his seat for Narungga and supporting the Dublin Dispatch with his page and the printing of the newsletter. We wish him and his team well.

Just getting over the State election and we are heading for the Federal one , info and links to the Electorate of Grey are on page 21.

The Dublin Institute again will be a polling place as it has been for many years.

Community Notice Board

Dublin General Store & Cafe

To our wonderful customers,

After 12 years serving the Dublin community for 7 days a week, Dublin General Store has decided to trial closing on Sundays over the coming months.

This is not a decision we have taken lightly, and we know it will be a big change for the town, however it will give our family a much needed rest over the quieter winter months, and we hope it will help us to provide you with an even better store and service. We will be closed on Sundays as of Mother's Day 8th May 2022.

We will be in contact with our Sunday Mail account holders to organise alternative arrangements, and as always the Sunday Mail will still be available from our friends at the Dublin Roadhouse.

As always, thanks so much to our community for your continuing support, and for making Dublin General Store such a lovely place to do business. We are truly blessed with the best customers, and remain grateful to you all.

COALITION OF COASTAL COMMUNITIES

Recently the Coalition of Coastal Communities (CCC) has moved forward in several areas.

A Strategic Plan for the coastal areas of the Adelaide Plains has been completed and was presented to the general meeting of the Adelaide Plains Council on 26th April 2022. This plan is consistent with and develops on the Adelaide Plains Council Tourism and Economic Development Strategy (TEDS) which was approved by Council earlier this year. It has been developed from inputs from the member organisations, being Friends of Middle Beach, Thompson Beach Progress Association, Parham and District Action Group, and Dublin History Group.

The prime outcomes from the plan are:

- ⇒ Establish a “Brand” for the coastal area. This has not been fully resolved, with opinions split between “Shorebird Coast” and “Samphire Coast”. The assistance of Regional Development Australia Barossa, Light and Adelaide Plains has been sought on resolving this issue and on how to develop marketing strategies.
- ⇒ Develop Dublin as the gateway to the coast with emphasis on improving the streetscape, providing tourist information services, and improving accommodation options.
- ⇒ Establish a camp ground in Dublin. CCC has worked with Adelaide Plains Council in identifying a potential site on land under control of Council, and has now lobbied the Council to seek expressions of interest in developing a campground.
- ⇒ Improve facilities in the coastal areas. A high priority in all coastal settlements is improved road infrastructure including the sealing of esplanades and access roads. Ablution block upgrades and improved family facilities (playgrounds etc) are high on the agendas.

- ⇒ The provision of a hiking/biking trail along the coast giving access to Bird Sanctuary facilities and coastal attractions
- ⇒ The retention and protection of the Dump Protest Statues

At a general meeting called for the purpose, interim appointments of office holders were made pending the first Annual General Meeting which will be held some time after July 2022. Interim office holders are: Chair, John Drexel (Friends of Middle Beach) Vice Chair, Philip Brow (Dublin History Group), Secretary/Treasurer, Alvin Jenkin (Parham and District Action Group), Public Officer, Greville Knight.

Subsequently Greville Knight, who has been involved in establishing the CCC and has done most of the work in developing and registering its Constitution has resigned due to his leaving the district, and Alvin Jenkin has been appointed Public Officer. Our thanks to Greville for his great work.

Recently the Mallala and District Lions Club has joined the CCC due to their heavy involvement in redeveloping the Parham Camp Ground.

CCC has developed a brand of its own as shown at the top of this report, and is establishing a web page, Facebook presence and has an exclusive email address coalitioncoastal@gmail.com CCC is also seeking sponsorship to assist in meeting the costs of promoting the objectives of the group. We express appreciation to the Adelaide Plains Ratepayers and Residents Association (in recess) for their financial support.

If you would like a copy of the Strategic Plan or to comment on CCC activities please email coalitioncoastal@gmail.com. Visitors are welcome at CCC meetings held at 7.30pm first Wednesday of the month, normally at Port Parham Sports and Social Club (please check the venue if you wish to attend)

Rowan RAMSEY MP

Federal Member for Grey

2022 FEDERAL ELECTION

On Saturday 21 May residents in Grey will get the chance to cast their vote on who they would like to represent them in the Federal Parliament.

I am proud to be a part of the Coalition Government that has led the nation through the most challenging time since WW2.

I am extremely proud to have delivered the:

- Biggest spend ever in Grey
- Most ever spent on local community facilities
- Record spending on mental health including four new headspace units
- Over $1bn in road funding upgrades
- Airstrips sealed and helipads built
- Aged care nursing training & childcare facilities
- Millions in drought, fire & flood assistance

There is still so much I wish to see happen in Grey and I hope you will give me that opportunity.

COVID-19 has caused death and economic failure around the world but here in Australia our government's methodical and balanced actions have delivered an outstanding result. Arguably we have fared the best in the world. We were the first in the world to close our international borders keeping COVID-19 at bay while we built our vaccination rate to one of the highest in the world. It has been an incredible response to an incredible challenge.

Locally, it has been great to help deliver a solid investment in the Adelaide Plains. The federal government has provided funding for the clubroom upgrade at the Dublin Cricket Club, synthetic greens at the Mallala and Two Wells Bowling Clubs, the Interpretive Centre at Port Parham, resurfacing of the Long Plains and Mallala sports courts, Thompson Beach Clubroom redevelopment, a new irrigation pump at the United Football Club, improved access to the Dublin Saleyard, free Wi-Fi across the four main townships of Two Wells, Mallala, Dublin and Thompson Beach, Parham Campground improvements and much more.

$47,000 GRANT FOR 'A STABLE LIFE'

In late 2018 I visited Rob and Julie Walker from A Stable Life to see the great work they were doing in supporting veterans through Equine Therapy at Dublin.

In April I was pleased that Rob and Julie were approved a grant of $47,000 under the Federal Government's Supporting Younger Veterans grants program. A Stable Life practices Equine Acceptance Therapy for those struggling with PTSD, anxiety and depression.

The Supporting Younger Veterans grant program is an important part of the government's commitment to support the younger veterans' community. The objectives of the program include delivering services that build community capacity for the future, and complement services already provided by the Commonwealth.

Please contact one of my offices or email rowan.ramsey.mp@aph.gov.au if you require assistance with any federal issues.

Mallala Museum: Margaret Tiller Gallery Opening

Mallala Museum volunteers have not been idle during lockdown. The upstairs gallery has been completely refurbished and has been renamed the Margaret Tiller Gallery. This is to pay homage to one of our most hardworking and dedicated volunteers who devoted many years to the museum. This exhibition area houses our display of domestic items, including toys, costumes, furniture and household items.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF VOLUNTEERS

May 21 – 22, 2022

Centenary Hall: Saturday 10am-4pm;
Sunday 10am-1pm

Urlwin Park: Saturday 10am-4pm;
Sunday 10am-4pm

Sunday, 1.30pm Unveiling Phil Barry
Memorial Plaque
at Urlwin Park

Welcome to our Golden Jubilee year – It is 50 years since a small band of history enthusiasts met to form the Balaklava & District Historical Society on February 24, 1972; it then became Branch No. 42 of National Trust S.A. in 1974; and that continued until March 2004, when links to the National Trust were severed, and the local group was formally renamed Balaklava Museum Inc., the group that we know today, and which we have all helped to grow and go from strength to strength.

We hope to have a printed “timeline” available, so people can see and learn how our Museum has evolved over the past 50 years.

Our celebrations to mark this event will form our History Festival event for this year, on the weekend of May 21-22, with both Museum sites open on both days, although Centenary Hall will close at 1.00pm on the Sunday, to allow all our members and visitors to be at Urlwin Park for a very special event at 1.30pm – the unveiling of the Phil Barry Memorial plaque

Our Blacksmithing Days are scheduled to start up again when the weather is cooler – on Sundays May 8, June 12, July 10, August 14 & September 11, from 10.00am each day. Please support these days and spread the word if you know anyone who is interested in seeing and/or learning blacksmithing.

ANZAC DAY 2022

PARHAM

Approximately 120 attended the service, and were addressed by Pastor Errol Meaney from Balaklava with appropriate thoughts covering the original meaning of Anzac, and the sacrifice of life for others, and the continuing issue of war in our times.

Rod Newell laid a wreath at the Remembrance Flagpole on behalf of the community, and Don Lyall brought the flag to half mast.

Our thanks to Georgie Dobson and her team for providing breakfast to over 80 participants, and to the Dublin CFS for their contribution in traffic management.

Don Lyall saluting the flag at the Anzac Day Dawn Service.

Sadly, the Department of Defence were not able to provide a catafalque party due to operational issues. Many defence staff are still active in flood relief on the east coast, and in common with the general community, numbers are down due to Covid. Hopefully they will return next year.

Establishing an Adelaide Plains Community Shop

Expression of interest is requested from residents re the possibility of opening a local Community Shop next door to "Suds Your Duds Laundromat".

On site toilet facilities available. An annual subscription of $15-00 per annum from each resident who submits items for sale is requested, to cover insurance, electricity, cleaning products.

Each resident submitting saleable items will be required/ requested to work/man the shop one day of each month -- may be a little more until the shop is established.

It is proposed that items will be sold on a commission of 17-5 %

Cake and biscuits to be sold on day of delivery, no food to be left in the shop over night

SA COUNTRY FIRE SERVICE DUBLIN BRIGADE

Easter has been and gone, Anzac Day been and gone.

Thank you to the Pt Parham Sports & Social Club, for inviting the Brigade to once again to do traffic control while the Anzac Day Service was happening. Just sat down to have the wonderful breakfast, and YES the pagers start going, leaving behind a yummy breakfast, hot coffee - off to help others is part of what we do.

Seem to be constantly busy the last month – road incidents, car fires, structure fires, and assisting other agencies.

End of fire season finished 30/4/2022. People starting to burn off rubbish – PLEASE follow local council regulations regarding times to burn off. Keep area well clear & contained, with rakes, shovel & water ready to use making sure your in attendance at all times until safely extinguished.

Training Monday nights 19:15hr for 19:30hr start.

Coronation Celebrations

Residents from Mallala and surrounding townships at a meeting in the Mallala Institute decided to hold a combined church service in the Mallala Institute in Coronation Day where the CWA Choir would lead the singing. A procession, headed by the RSL and schoolchildren will then proceed to the Mallala Park, where a picnic luncheon will be held. The head teachers of five schools in the area are arranging sports to open the afternoon's celebrations. A committee was formed comprising 18 members representing various organisations in the area to arrange a programme for the adults. A Coronation ball will be held on June 1.

MALLALA, June 3.

About 400 people attended the Coronation ball and door takings totalled £92. Miss Helen Hesse was Judged Queen of the ball. Yesterday the address at a combined service was delivered by Pastor Williams, of Long Plains. The procession to the oval was led by airmen and WAAF's from the RAAF station, and escorted by a flight of Mustangs overhead.

DUBLIN CRICKET CLUB

A Year of Transition

Well another cricket season has passed. This time we were moving on after the transition into our new clubrooms/pavilion.

The effect the new building has had on the culture of the club has been monumental, to the point where we knew we were going to have better facilities but we've been pleasantly surprised, almost overwhelmed, at the corresponding requirements for a more professional outlook in our activities.

Like everything, it all starts from the top down, with the Club Committee having to upgrade standard operations, particularly in areas like rosters, security, audits and behavioural guidelines. Importantly, legal requirements for responsible bar volunteers, child safety officers and child safety training, covid marshals and workplace health and safety are constantly being reassessed and upgraded. Risk assessment and risk management audits are regularly re-assessed.

Physical and infrastructural improvements are currently the subject of scrutiny. Much time and effort has been spent on health, safety and comfort for volunteers in our kitchen, with new flews and exhaust fans fitted. Also being considered, assessed and planned is wheelchair and handicap access for the building and all club facilities.

The Club is constantly in go-ahead mode. To that end the playing group are always looking to recruit players, (plus helpers and assistants), at all levels.

We have junior teams of several age groups, two senior teams and we are looking to enter a women's team again.

If you've ever played cricket, or your kids want to play sport in a safe and organised environment give Club President, Rob Priest a call on 0420 708 078 or just show up at the club as we get closer to the new season. Anyone from the Club will be happy to point you in the right direction.

TABLE TALK

"Put some more in your mouth," said my father to me as I was thoroughly enjoying my dinner and eating in a fast manner. I paused, thinking this through and as a dutiful son I quickened my input, only to feel a painful whack on my back from the flat of the breadknife. Mum and my two siblings had their heads down as if nothing had happened, so no help there as I wondered why doing what I was told merited the painful whack. I was glad they did not see the tears that welled up and were in danger of escaping down my cheeks. Was I the victim of reverse psychology I thought? I slowed down my input, looked at Dad and received an approving nod of his head. After the meal was over and Dad had gone out to one of his many community organisations to which he was the secretary I was able to talk it through with Mum and work out what it was all about.

We had strict protocols at the table which were justified under the heading of good manners. Dad sat at the head of the table. The loaf of high-top bread was on the breadboard on his right and the meal protocols began with him cutting a slice for each person and handing it to them on the flat of the breadknife. He alone decided who got the coveted first slice with its ragged face where it had been broken from its other half. We called it, "the baker's apron" and though it had no difference in taste to the other slices it was looked on as magical and the recipient was the lucky one. At the opposite end of the table was my mother who got up and down as the meal required. Also, to Dad's right and in easy reach was myself and next to me my younger brother. We sat on a long stool and were encouraged by the presence of the breadknife ever ready, to keep our back straight and elbows off the table. Across the table from us boys in solitary splendour sat my sister. We were required to eat everything on the plate as a way of honouring the cook. Mum would have filled the plates with the food and served them to us at the start of the meal. You could ask for seconds, careful to have "please" in the request and when it came, "thank you." At the end of the meal, we had to ask, "May I be excused?", before standing up to go. Dad strictly policed these niceties. I had a problem with fat on the meat. To eat it made me feel sick, but this did not cut any ice with Dad. Many a night I sat at the table with the meat fat on the plate, just me and Dad while the others were enjoying themselves elsewhere as he watched me slowly eat the fat, miniscule portion by miniscule portion. Most times he had to go to a meeting, and I strung it out until he had to leave, when mum would take the plate and scrape the fat into the stove fire and then serve me my sweets. Dad and my grandmother thought fat the best part of the meal and many a time I saw them eat a meal with only the fat with the vegetables. Neither she nor my father ate sweets.

Our training at the table came good the day Dad brought home for Sunday dinner the visiting priest. We children knew there was something momentous going on when Mum set the dining room table rather than the kitchen with her best cloth. Each place also had a serviette, and the cutlery was out of the canteen from the china cabinet. It was long after our normal mealtime when dad and the priest appeared, and my brother and I were ravenous. It seems that after church Dad took the priest to the pub to meet the locals and lost track of time. Well, that was their story. The meal was further delayed as Mum and the priest made polite conversation. Meanwhile we had taken our place at the table hoping this would hurry the serving of the food. When it was finally in front of us our instinct told us not to start eating despite our tummy telling us to hoe in. Dad said, "Father, would you say Grace please?" We watched on in amazement as Mum and Dad bowed their heads. We followed suit, the priest said something, and how glad we were that it was followed by him picking up his knife and fork and start eating as did we. Afterwards when Dad and the priest went back to the hotel Mum congratulated us on waiting for the adults to begin eating. "I must tell you about Grace she said, so you know what to do if it happens again."

"Children, obey your parents in the Lord for this is right, 'Honour your father and Mother' and fathers do not provoke your children to anger but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord." (Ephesians 6:1-4 NIV). I do not remember my father as a disciplinarian except at the table. I think the lessons learnt there naturally overflowed into our whole life rather than he continue the tactics everywhere else.

PARHAM AND DISTRICT ACTION GROUP (PADAG)

The Parham and District Action group is active on several fronts.

Parham Camp Ground

Our prime energy is currently focussed on the redevelopment of the Parham Camp Ground, and a working group is combining with a working group of the Mallala and Districts Lions Club to bring this to fruition. You will recall from previous reports that the Adelaide Plains Council has sought to divest itself of operating the campground and significant funds are available for an upgrade. The current status is:

- ♦ Adelaide Plains Council has agreed to lease the campground to the Mallala and District Lions Club. There are a number of issues to work through and it is likely that the lease conditions will be finalised in July 2022.
- ♦ Mallala and District Lions Club and Parham and District Action Group are negotiating a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on the operation of the campground. Some of the principles of the MoU are
 - There will be a camping charge
 - Lions will manage the campground including bookings and fee collection
 - PADAG will carry out day to day operations eg cleaning and monitoring of sites
 - There will be a profit sharing arrangement between APC, Lions and PADAG
 - Any profits from the facility will be used for developments within the district
- ♦ Lions/PADAG have developed a campground plan which includes such things as a camp kitchen, an observation deck, fish cleaning station, facilities for the disabled, and clearly defined camp sites
- ♦ Engineering of the redevelopment is currently in hand with Council and they will manage the redevelopment works within the funding grant moneys made available. There are considerable challenges due to the high water table, and coastal development requirements

The Lions Club will be holding their monthly dinner meeting at the Port Parham Sports and Social Club on Monday 23rd May, and this meeting will be open to the public. The meeting will focus on providing information about the campground redevelopment. If you wish to attend please contact Brenton Bell 0498 492 114 or Alvin Jenkin 8529 2504.

Webb Beach Interpretative Centre

This centre was established early in the 2000s and has fallen into disrepair due to weather conditions. PADAG has determined works required to refurbish the centre and is sourcing funds to do this. Our thanks to the Port Parham Sports and Social Club who have donated the proceeds from the recent Parham Run and Boot Sale towards this work. We are negotiating with Adelaide Plains Council and the Adelaide International Bird Sanctuary over the works as it seems that ownership of the facility got “lost” during the establishment of the National Park.

The signs at the centre have been removed for protection and are being treated with anti graffiti coating.

Hopefully this work will be completed in the next few weeks.

The Parham Precinct

A working group has been preparing a development plan for the precinct between the car park and boat ramp. An exciting draft plan was presented at our most recent meeting, and opportunity will be taken to present this to the public for consultation when opportunity presents.

Recently Council provided a disabled access path from the car park to the beach from near the Lions Shelter. This raised safety concerns with illegal vehicle access to the beach through this area, and many observations of near misses due to irresponsible driving. Following consultation with Council, PADAG received approval to place bollards across the car park, and a working bee achieved this on 9th April. Posts were sourced from materials left over from a previous foreshore protection grant. Our thanks to those who assisted on the day and particularly to John Coles for the provision of earthmoving equipment, and Matt Drew for the provision of a post hole borer.

Other Issues

A development plan is being prepared for the Webb Beach Boat Ramp precinct.

PADAG continues to lobby Adelaide Plains Council to get green waste collection in Coastal areas.

PADAG has sought action from APC on safety at the Webb Beach Road/Port Parham Road intersection

PADAG is working on a constitution with the view of separating PADAG from the Port Parham Sports and Social Club. We are also developing a logo for the organisation.

PADAG continues to observe dog and horse activity in our area. APC has now formalised a policy on Dog and Cat Management which has a significant impact on dog management in coastal areas and has developed a long overdue draft policy on horse management which will be provided for public consultancy in the next few weeks.

PADAG now has an exclusive email address: padag1876@gmail.com

Residents and friends are always welcome to attend PADAG meetings, second Tuesday of the month at 7 pm at Port Parham Sports and Social Club

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee 2022

This year, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II will become the first Australian Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee after 70 years of service. Australia will join other Commonwealth countries to mark this significant occasion

Framed print of Queen Elizabeth II

In October 1954 the Dublin School Committee decided to purchase two prints. One of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II in West Minster Abbey, the other The Duke of Edinburgh with money given by the State Government to hang in the Dublin School room.

Diamond Studios of Adelaide framed the prints

Years after the school had closed, former Dublin School Student and Dublin Resident Beverly Jones, purchased the above original school portrait at a local clearing sale. Beverly has loaned it to the Dublin Institute, where it proudly hangs above the piano.

Extracts from Memories of School book

RICHARD NORRIS

From the beginning of 1953 I was not the youngest in the school, and began to make a few friends. Nothing really stands out, that I can remember, except Queen Elizabeth II coronation. I seem to remember listening to some of it on the radio.

PAULINE LAINTOLL nee McARDLE

One of the excursions we went on was to Adelaide to see the Queen. We travelled by train from Owen, it was a special train that took the kids for that occasion. We went to one of the race tracks; I remember it was a long day as we caught a bus from the Adelaide station. It was dark when we got home that night.

The school also visited the Port Pirie smelters a couple of times and we

ALVIN JENKIN

In 1954, Queen Elizabeth II visited South Australia and the entire school travelled by train to Adelaide to see her. The special train had started from Port Pirie and picked up school children at every stop along the way, so there were several hundred on board by the time it got to Adelaide. We all got off at Adelaide Railway station and were put onto trams to be taken to Victoria Park Race Course where we sat on the lawn awaiting the arrival of Her Majesty. She was driven slowly past us in an open Land Rover, and we enjoyed the moment. After the event we walked back to the Railway Station because the trams could not handle the large load and were put on the train home. Little would I have imagined that I would meet Her Majesty 25 years later and be presented with the Queen's Silver Jubilee Medal for services to the people of Papua New Guinea.

WENDY BRAITHWAITE nee BUBNER

Each assembly we sang God Save the King until 1952 when King George VI passed away unexpectedly and Queen Elizabeth ascended to the throne, then we sang God Save the Queen. We marched into school, after assembly to a student playing the fife. School excursions that I enjoyed were to a winery, a reservoir, and to see the Queen and Prince Phillip in Adelaide in 1954.

The Mallala Monument

This year the Mallala Monument turns 100. It was financed by public subscription and was officially unveiled on 15th October, 1922. The War Memorial commemorates ten men who died in service or were killed in action in World War One. It consists of a globe with the map of Australia as its base, and around the top are plaques listing the names of those who lost their lives.

The ten men whose names appear on the monument are:

Sapper Harold Lyle Bartlett, Private Samuel Leonard Buttle, Driver George Wilfred Cope, Private Frank Cullen, Trooper Arthur Roy Earl, Private Ralph Ashton Lindsay, Private William Fred Nairn, Private William Norman Roberts, Lance Corporal Walter John Shimmin, Private Maurice James Theobald

These names also appear on the District of Grace Honour Roll which is housed in the Mallala Museum. Who were these men? Let's get to know some of them a bit better:

Sapper Harold Lyle Bartlett (20470) was a member of 5th Division Signal Company.

An only child, Harold was born in Adelaide on 8th October, 1898 to Herbert Edgar Bartlett and Emily Annie, nee Lyle. Herbert was born at Grace Plains in 1869 and was one of ten children.

Harold enlisted on the 7th July, 1917 at Mitcham Camp. He was 5 ft 7 ¼ inches tall with blue eyes, brown hair and a fresh complexion. At the time of signing up he was employed as a fitter and turner at Dobbie & Coy. The family lived in Glenelg.

He was unable to embark until his 18th birthday. He embarked at Melbourne on 21st November on the Nestor and disembarked at Suez where he joined the Australian Camp. After being on active service in North Alexandria, he contracted pneumonia. He was embarked on board the Abbassieh to Taranto in Italy. He then travelled to the port of Cherbourg, France where he was left in isolation at the hospital in January, 1918. He then travelled to Parkhouse and then Clifton in England. He was finally repatriated to Kempston, Military Hospital in Bedford, England where he died of pneumonia on the 4th April, 1918, aged 19 years and 6 months.

He is buried in the consecrated portion of the Kempston Cemetery.

His parents requested the return of any personal effects. These were in a package being carried on board the ill-fated "Barunga" which was lost at sea with all cargo as a result of enemy action. These items included "1 map, 1 pr trousers, 1 knife fork & spoon (combined), 1 drinking cup, 1 metal mirror in case, 1 clasp knife and lanyard, 1 safety razor and brush in case, 1 razor, 1 book of views, 4 devotional books, 1 notebook, 1 printing frame, 1 stop, 1 comb, 1 wrist watch, cover & strap, money belt, 2 diaries, 9 coins, 1 ring, medallion, camera, 1 note book and wallet containing negatives & photos, letters, 1 brooch, 1 pr gloves, badges, 1 lanyard, 1 pr mitts, 2 kit bag handles & locks, 1 disk and cord, 1 housewife, 1 jack knife, 1 comb, 1 razor".

Sapper Bartlett was posthumously awarded the Victory Medal, the 1914/15 Star and the British War Medal on 25th July, 1921.

Private Samuel Leonard Buttle (2343) was born in Dublin, SA, on 7th March, 1894 to Alfred and Hannah (nee Pratt). One of ten children, his father died in 1908 and was buried at Mallala. Samuel was only 14.

Samuel gave his trade as "farmer" when he took the oath and enlisted in the 10th Battalion, 7th Reinforcements, at the age of 21 years and one month on the 26th March, 1915 at Keswick. He was 5 ft 8 inches tall with a dark complexion, brown eyes and dark hair. He was then sent for training to the camp at Mitcham. He left Adelaide on HMAT Kanowna on 23rd June and disembarked at Suez on 25th July.

Tragically, just a short time later, he was admitted to Choubra Infectious Hospital, Cairo. Epidemics of sickness had spread through the ships and the camps. He died on the 10th of August, 1915 of measles and pneumonia aged 21 years, 6 months. He was buried at the New Protestant Cemetery, Old Cairo, Egypt.

A brown paper parcel containing his effects was sent to his widowed mother.

He was awarded the 1914/15 Star, the British War Medal and the Victory Medal. These have been donated to the Mallala Museum along with other memorabilia including his dog tags

Next edition we will get to know some of the other names on the Monument.

Cactus Garden

Mr Joe Lowey came to Windsor with his parents and brother in 1929. He bought section 492 in 1935, but didn't commence work in the garden until 1951. He established over 50 varieties of cacti in approximately three acres of garden, relying entirely on natural water. In addition, a wide variety of items have been positioned throughout the garden. These include stone from the property and local derelict houses, fencing made from the old wooden Port Wakefield bridge, old tractor tyres, cement from the former Avon cricket pitch and sculptures and stone blocks from Two Wells dated 1874.

Several visitor books have been filled over the years by tourists from such places as Alaska, Iran, Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland, USA, Canada, New Zealand, Fiji, New Guinea and most Asian countries.

The Leyland Brothers made a brief television documentary on the Cactus Garden during the 1970's while articles have appeared in magazines and local newspapers quite frequently.

Joe Lowey died and the property was sold. Following the institute centenary service at the Windsor Uniting Church on Sunday 12 August 1984, there was a dedication of a plaque in memory of the late Joe Lowey. Mr and Mrs Roy Poole, the new owners of the Cactus Garden, have kept the garden open for all visitors to stroll around and enjoy.

Arizona Cactus Ranch - Story Continues

From the new owners - "We are getting close to nearing our 1st week on this Incredible property and have barely scratched the surface of uncovering the beauty on this Land. Everyday we find more treasures and plants to love. We look forward to the day we open the gates to the Public

New Toilets

The Dublin Institute is having the toilets upgraded very soon, it will be a double toilet block with one disabled and one unisex. We have been liaising with the Adelaide Plains Council with ideas and concerns and are very happy with the progress. Due to heritage and others considerations it will be a concrete structure, the colorbond roofing and the painting of the concrete walls and door will be in a colour, sympathetic to the heritage of the Institute building .

Sunday 22nd May

Sunday 12th June

1.00 pm to 4.00 pm

Due to the Federal Election being called on the 21st May the DHG have had to scale back our SA History Festival event (22nd May), to just a display with coffee and tea available, due to access to the hall. We did discuss other options but this seemed to be the best solution so pop along and see what we have found in our research on retail in the Hundred of Dublin and Lower Light and Port Lorne. We have only touched the surface of the many businesses that existed and still exist but we are always looking to add to the collection and the history of the area with your stories and photos to share with others .

DHG in 2022

The DHG are looking forward to holding our regular events later in the year, Family History Research in August, Car Boot Sale in November and the Carols Night in December but are always looking for ideas. If you have any suggestions let us know.

Nina D. Campbell

Come and join the Adelaide Plains Library as we host author Nina D. Campbell. Nina's debut novel, Daughters of Eve, was released in late March 2022. It is a fast paced police thriller from a bold new voice in the crime genre.

Nina has studied theatre and literature at university and worked as a professional writer, across both private and public sectors. When a midlife health challenge changed her priorities, Nina began to pursue her writing aspirations in earnest. She now writes fiction full-time, with a focus on stories about strong women.
