

DUBLIN HISTORY GROUP INC.

BUILDING AND BOOKS

THE INSTITUTE -

WHERE THE COMMUNITY CAME TOGETHER

Date: Saturday 28th April

Time: 1pm - 4pm

Venue: Windsor Institute
19 Old Port Wakefield Rd, Windsor

Have you ever wondered about the lovely old building with the word Institute written above the door, what it was all about? The Dublin History Group would like to share with you the story of Institutes in South Australia and history of the Institute buildings in the Hundred of Dublin. There will be a talk and display at the 134-year Windsor Institute. Come along and learn about the interesting histories of these buildings and the important part they play in the lives of their local community.

Date: Sunday 27th May

Time: 1pm - 5pm

Venue : Dublin Institute
9 Sixth St, Dublin

Institutes and halls have long been a part of the fabric of the community with family stories woven into them over time. A place for all to meet, celebrate and learn. The Dublin History Group have collected and researched the histories and stories of these wonderful old buildings. Come and share the Dublin, Wild Horse Plains and Windsor Institutes and Long Plains Memorial Hall stories. Included will be a photographic display and local entertainment to remind us just how important institutes are to the community. The day would not be complete without a traditional country afternoon tea.
