Sports - Past and Present

Query: Listed below are some of the sports that are and were played in the Hundred of Dublin including Lower light, we are looking for photos, stories and information about these or have we missed some let us know?

The Dublin History Group on the 28th May, 2017 as part of the History SA History Festival are putting on a display to show the history of Sport in this area.

The Dublin History Group does have some photos and information in our collection but we are always looking to expand on what we have. Please share with us.

Do you have some photos that you would like scanned for us to use, let us know or come along to our open days and we can scan them and give them straight back to you?
